

Seminar Sales Representative

Public speaking ability, sales experience and professional appearance are required to represent Tax Reduction Institute to business groups in certain areas of the country.

This is an excellent opportunity for an experienced sales person or couple who like to travel and enjoy giving group sales presentations to professional business groups.

Income potential is $50,000 to $100,000 per year.

If you would like more information and are a professional, experienced sales person who also is an effective public speaker please email your resume to:

michael.jones@taxreductioninstitute.com